YOUNG CHRISTIAN GIRL ASSAULTED IN PAKISTAN'S PUNJAB PROVINCE

Pakistan— On April 11, a 7-year-old Christian girl from Talwandi village, located in the Kasur district of Pakistan's Punjab province, was kidnapped and assaulted by a Muslim man. According to local reports, the Christian girl was recovered by local villagers and the assailant was taken into custody.

On April 11, Nadia, a young Christian girl, was discovered to be missing at 7 p.m. when her father Boota Masih returned home. Immediately, Masih and other neighbors began to search for Nadia. Ghulam Sabir, a Muslim resident of Talwandi, heard a cry coming from a nearby wheat field. There, Sabir found Nadia, who had been beaten and sexually assaulted, and her assailant, Muhammad Shoaib. Shoaib tried to escape, but he was captured, taken into custody, and formally arrested by local police. "I live in a house without a boundary wall," Masih explained to International Christian Concern (ICC). "I am a single parent as Nadia's mother died a few years back."

Assaults on women and girls from Pakistan's religious minority communities are unfortunately

REVELATION OF NIGERIAN SEMINARY STUDENT'S ASSASSIN: FREQUENT PROCLAMATION OF CHRIST, THE REASON OF KILLING.

The reason for the death of seminary student Michael Nadi, who was found abducted and murdered in the African country of Nigeria, has been revealed. The Nigerian newspaper Daily Sun reports that the murderer, Mohammed Mustafa, has revealed in prison that Michael was killed because of his constant proclamation of Christ despite being bound. He made the disclosure in a telephone interview with the permission of the jail authorities. "Michael was preaching the gospel of Christ without fear when he was in bondage. Michael looked at me in the face in the wrong way. "We have a lot of people here," said Mohammed Mustafa, a 26-year-old leader of the gang. With the revelation, it is clear that Michael's death was martyrdom.

About ten o'clock on the night of January 8, armed men attacked the Good Shepherd Major Seminary and shot and killed the students. Michael's body was found on February 1, although three of the kidnapped, escaped with serious injuries. According to a recent report by the Christian charity organization, Open Doors, Nigeria ranks 12th on the list of countries with the highest number of Christian persecution cases.

MALAYALEE IFS OFFICER SIBI GEORGE THE NEW INDIAN AMBASSADOR TO KUWAIT

India appointed new Ambassador to Kuwait. Malayali IFS officer Sibi George will be the next ambassador for Kuwait. The decision was taken yesterday by the Foreign Ministry to reinstate ambassadors from several countries. Current Kuwait Ambassador K Jeevasagar is retiring at the end of next month. According to The Hindu newspaper, Sibi George was nominated for the position. He is a 1993 batch officer of the Indian Foreign Service. His first assignment was as a political officer in Egypt. He was appointed First Secretary in Qatar, Political Counselor to the Indian High Commission in Pakistan, and later as Political Counselor and Commercial Counselor in the United States. He also served as Deputy Chief of Mission in Saudi Arabia and Iran. He was the coordinator of the East-Asia Division and the Indo-Africa Forum Summit at the Foreign Ministry Headquarters in Delhi. Sibi George, who specializes in Arabic language, was awarded the SK Sing Award for Excellence in IFS in 2014. He hails from Pala of Kottayam district. He married to Joyce John and has two daughters and a son. He has been ambassador to Switzerland from November 2017. Sibi George is the second Indian Ambassador to Kuwait from Kerala. BMC Nair better known as Kalika Mohan is the first Indian Ambassador to Kuwait from Kerala.

the truth but have delighted in wickedness (2 Thessalonians 2:11-12). "He will be succeeded by a contemptible person who has not been given the honor of royalty. He will invade the kingdom when its people feel secure, and he will seize it through intrigue" (Daniel 11:21). The Jewish people never accepted Jesus Christ as their Messiah but they falsely accused and blasphemed Jesus. They invited curses on themselves by their own words by confessing: "we are responsible for His blood and let this remain on our generation too".

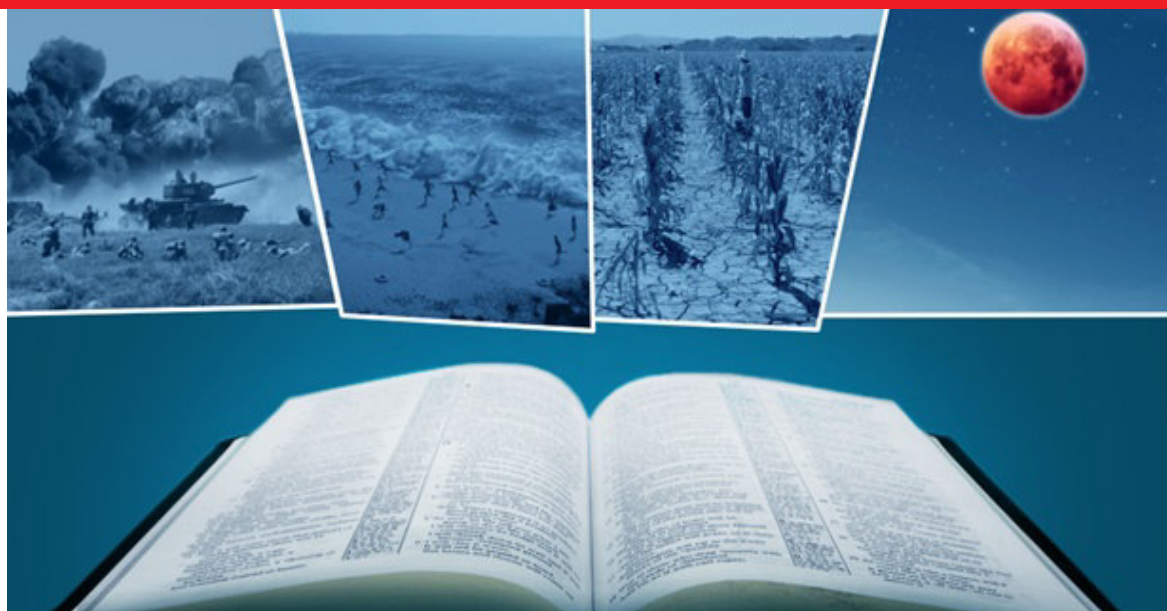

The Great Tribulation

Rev. Dr Victor Solomon
Isaac

A. The First Half of the Tribulation

The Lord Jesus Christ prophesied in Matthew: 24: 21 that there will be great tribulation and it will be worse than any other from the beginning of the world until now. And it will never be so great again. This time of tribulation will be a troublesome period which the people of the world would have never experienced in the past nor will they ever experience in the future. This is the time of worldwide famine, having no solution or peace to humanity. The eyes of people will be looking for someone to solve this problem. At this juncture, Satan will empower an individual (Antichrist) and give his powers to do miracles and wonders. He will plan for temporary world peace and a temporary solution to their immediate problems and needs. The people of the whole world will hail and accept him as their leader. Also Jewish people (Israel) will accept him as their long-awaited Messiah (Revelation: 13: 5, 13, 14 & 2 Thessalonians 2:7-10). God will send them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie and that they all might be condemned who have not believed

Jews will accept antichrist as their Messiah since they will find the characteristics that they were looking for in him. Antichrist will put on pretense to support the Jews and the temple that will be built for the sacrifices to be offered. A peace agreement with the Jewish people for a period of seven years will be made by him and the Jewish people will be dodged. The Jewish people will celebrate, not knowing what is in store for them. At the end of first three and half years, the antichrist breaks his agreement and the Jewish people will lose their hopes. The next three and half years or the second half of the tribulation will be a period of awful Woes, punishments, and great miseries that world has never experienced. "Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals. And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll? But no-one in or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll even look inside it. I wept and wept because no-one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. Then one of the elders said to me, do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals. Then I saw a lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. He came and took the scroll from the right hand of him who sat on the throne. And when he had taken it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sang a new song: You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain, and with your blood you purchased men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth. Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne and the living creatures and the elders." -Revelation 5:1-11 (NIV - UK)

The first half of tribulation comprises of seven seals (Revelation 6:1-17, 8:1-5) and seven trumpets (Revelation 8:6-21, 11:15-19). The seven seals and seven trumpets are interrelated one to another. The seventh seal initiates the seven trumpets (Revelation 8:1-5). The seventh trumpet (Revelation 8:1-5), initiates the seven bowls (Revelation 11:15-19, 15:1-8).

Dear reader, now is the time to turn away from these wrath and condemnation and look to the Lord Jesus Christ for your salvation. Before it is too late, accept Jesus Christ as your personal savior and the Lord of your life. The Holy Bible says in Acts: 16:31-34 "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved you and your household. Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house. At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his family were baptized. The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he was filled with joy because he had come to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, he and his whole family." Truly this is the right time for he says, "In the time of my favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you. I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation." (2 Corinthians 6:2).

When your life is guided by the Lord, you will always be ready and prepared for the Rapture. Do not worry about the date setters and their events that are going to come upon people. Here under, I want to explain to you in detail about the seven seals, seven trumpets, and seven bowls.

tions, the society said they prevent confusion with the modern-day country.

The omissions occurred in a project titled "Bible 2020" that was published earlier this year under the society's supervision, a news site reported recently. It's the first translation into Danish in more than 20 years.

Jan Frost, a Bible enthusiast and supporter of Israel from Denmark, drew the media's attention to the omissions on YouTube and other social networks. He counted 59 omissions out of 60 references to Israel in the Greek origin for New Testament texts. References to "the People of Israel" were replaced with "Jews," while "Land of Israel" became "the land of Jews."

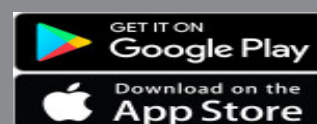

In other places, references to Israel were translated as referencing all readers or all of humanity.

The Song of Ascents from the Book of Psalms in the Hebrew Bible, a popular Shabbat hymn for Jews, originally states that "He who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep." In the new translation, Israel is replaced by the word "us." A Bible Society representative told Frost that the decision was made to avoid confusing the Land of Israel with the State of Israel. However, the names of other countries from that time that still exist, such as Egypt, have not been changed.

"The old theological expression for this is 'replacement theology,' in which you replace Israel with the church."

(Isaiah 1:16)*

The Bible says that no man sees the Lord without holiness! What is holiness? It is not the heap of good works that are done to hide the bad ones, instead it is living according to the will of God forsaking forever everything against His will at any cost. Something that we approve to be good may be unholy and immoral at the sight of God. What we need to do is to become holy by confessing our sins and by introspecting ourselves in the light of the scriptures, our mirror. In the verse we read above, God

WALKING IN THE LIGHT OF THE LORD

speaks to the people of Israel through the prophet Isaiah "I am more interested in your sanctifying (cleansing) yourself from your impurities than in the religious activities you do like sacrifices and rituals. The praises from a blameless conscience in front of God and man will be considered the most accepted sacrifice! We should find our own mistakes and find solution to them. That's how often David prayed to God (Psalm 139: 2). He said, You know my sitting down and my rising up; You understand my thought afar off. Dear ones, come to the presence of God with a broken heart! Let this day be a day of sanctifying (cleansing) yourself! Remember people like

STATUE OF CHRIST THE REMEDEER IN BRAZIL, NOW CHRIST THE MEDICINE

Rio de Janeiro's Christ the Redeemer statue lit up in doctor garb on Sunday to honor to the healthcare workers on the frontline of the fight against coronavirus.

Images of a doctor's lab coat and stethoscope were projected onto the iconic 98-foot tall statue. The statue also displayed videos of doctors donning their medical gear, including their protective masks. The statue read out "Obrigado," and the word "thank you" in several other languages.

The statue's projections rotated to include messages to the people of Brazil. Phrases like "Fique Em Casa," which translates to "Stay at Home," or handwritten messages from children saying "everything will be alright" were projected onto the statue's arms. Last week, the statue also lit up with images of the flags of the countries that have reported coronavirus outbreaks.

The archbishop of Rio de Janeiro, Dom Orani Tempesta, also performed a mass beneath the gigantic statue during which he

According to a study led by The Movement for Solidarity and Peace Pakistan, an estimated 1,000 women and girls from Pakistan's Hindu and Christian community are assaulted, kidnapped, forcefully married to their assailant, and forcefully converted to Islam every year. The issue of religion is often injected into cases of sexual assault to place religious minority victims at a disadvantage. Playing upon religious biases, assailants know they can cover up and justify their crimes by introducing an element of religion.

honored the medical workers combatting COVID-19. There have been more than 22,300 confirmed coronavirus cases in Brazil and at least 1,230 deaths, according to data from Johns Hopkins University.

Rio has been finding ways to honor the victims and first responders of the pandemic. This month, a firefighter played his trumpet from 150 feet over the city in an effort to "boost the morale" of people stuck under lockdown.

"Everyone is suffering [from] the pandemic and I'm trying to boost the morale of Rio's population, so all this difficulty is lessened in these times we're going through," the firefighter said. "Bringing a bit of music, a bit of air, to these people has meant a lot to me as a musician and to the corps."

Monuments around the world have been lighting up with inspirational messages and sayings while much of the world remains under coronavirus lockdown. Switzerland's Matterhorn has been projecting red-and-white messages of hope on the side of a snowy mountaintop for the world to see.

world. The failed suicide attempt landed him in a hospital in Delhi where he met the Lord. It was there that he was introduced to the Bible, given by a pastor, read by his mother, and John 14:19, with the words “Because I will live, you will also live,” and those words touched Zacharias so deeply that he dedicated his life to Jesus Christ. At the age of 19, he had won a preaching contest in India which marked the beginning of a remarkable Christian ministry focused on apologetics.

In 1966, Zacharias immigrated with his family to Canada, and he earned his undergraduate degree from the Ontario Bible College in 1972 (now Tyndale University) and his M.Div. from Trinity International University in 1976. He participated in guided study at Ridley Hall, a Church of England theological school in Cambridge in 1990. Ever since his graduation, he continued his ministries in countries like Cambodia, Vietnam, and India.

While speaking at a Billy Graham Evangelistic Association conference in Amsterdam, in 1983, Zacharias felt the need of an apologetic ministry because it was an area of the faith that was deficient. In August 1984, Ravi Zacharias International Ministries (RZIM) was founded in Toronto, Canada, to pursue his calling as an evangelist and apologist. RZIM has its headquarters located in the suburbs of Atlanta, Georgia. As their website says, “throughout his life, he remained committed to his calling to represent the gospel of Jesus Christ through historical, philosophical, and moral foundations and to defend it against objectors with grace, clarity, and coherency. He laid the framework of the truth of the gospel to millions of people in more than 70 countries, including on the campuses of some of the world’s leading universities.”

Zacharias spent more than 45 years of his life defending the Christian faith and answering life’s tough and existential questions of origin, meaning, morality, and destiny with articulation based on the grace he received from God. He fully believed the truth of Jesus Christ can withstand the toughest critiques and philosophical attacks from the secular world. He authored or edited over 30 Christian books in the fields of theology, apologetics, comparative religion, and philosophy. The names of some of those are “Jesus Among Other Gods the Absolute Claims of the Christian Message”, “Can Man Live Without God”, “Who Made God? And Answers to Over 100 Other Tough Questions of Faith.” “The Logic of God”,

“Seeing Jesus from the East”, and “New Birth of Re-birth, Jesus Talks with Krishna.”

Following a brief battle with sarcoma, on May 19, 2020, Zacharias died at the age of 74 and he is survived by his wife Margie; daughters, Sarah and Naomi; son, Nathan; and five grandchildren. The celebration of Ravi’s life and legacy will be streamed live on YouTube and on Facebook on Friday, May 29, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Time and at 8:30 (IST).

When you do that, it is the time of great rejoicing in heaven. All our praises and thanks, thereafter, will become a worship in which miracles and healings take place. Jesus, with open arms, is waiting to receive you, if you cleanse yourself or keep yourself holy!

plundered the Amalekites and got more than enough! As we read scripture we come across Job who lost everything unexpectedly in His life. But Job wasn't shaken in his faith and towards the last chapter we read in Job 42:10 that,

"After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his fortunes and gave him twice as much as he had before"

I don't want to specific by any numbers- it may be by twice, thrice or any- but we serve a God who is powerful to restore. And God's answers may not be in the ways we expected always. But we need to get strengthened in the Lord even in those situations and not be bitter like the men with David.

Colossians 1:11,12¹¹ We also pray that you will be strengthened with all his glorious power so you will have all the endurance and patience you need. May you be filled with joy,¹² always thanking the Father. He has enabled you to share in the inheritance that belongs to his people, who live in the light.

Walking in the fullness of God requires God's dependence. We need to learn to see Him as a source of energy. Even as the world passes through this period of pandemic, let us strengthen ourselves in Jesus Christ!

Strengthen Ourselves in The Lord

1 Samuel 30:3,4,5,6

3 When David and his men reached Ziklag, they found it destroyed by fire and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.⁴ So David and his men wept aloud until they had no strength left to weep.⁵ David's two wives had been captured—Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel.⁶ David was greatly distressed because the men were talking of stoning him; each one was bitter in spirit because of his sons and daughters. But David found strength in the LORD his God.

For most of us, besides God who should be our first priority, our life revolves around few important aspects! Can anyone tell me what are some of the elements controlling our life?

The three Fs that I could highlight are: Family, Finance and Friends. At any point in life if any of these elements are affected, we might feel lost or distressed. Now, can anyone tell me of a person in the bible who lost all the three things in life at the same moment? It is Job!

Now coming back to the bible portion, David here is at this crossroad in life where he feels like he feels like a failure in all the three areas of his life as well. David reached back to Ziklag and he realizes that:

- He lost his property in fire- A financial failure

- He lost his family
- His own men who stood and fought with him all this while is now plotting to kill him

But the interesting point of attention is the last line of verse 6 which says, "But David found strength in the Lord His God"

Right there and then, David could have run away. He could have isolated himself. He could have killed himself. He didn't know if his family was alive even. He'd come back and they disappeared. There's no Instagram in those days and it's not like he saw their pictures on social media. He had no idea if they were still alive.

But it says in the Bible that David went and strengthened himself in the Lord. He added God to the mix of his disappointment and strengthened himself in God.

Sometimes, life may not always flow in the direction we expected it to flow – because God may have different plans for us. And our initial responses at this moment would be anger and our minds may have lots of questions. But instead of meeting those moments with desperation, it is important to lean on God! Life needn't go in the direction we planned but God has the best plans for us! And it's important to trust in God. Here we see in verse 5 it says that: "they had no strength left to weep" and the very immediate verse says "David found strength in God".

Now there are two groups of people in this portion:

1. Men with David: The men with David also suffered loss and were devastated but this made them bitter in Spirit. Most of the time, our response to situations is similar to the men with David.

2. David: Instead, David chose the better portion as He relies on God even in his losses. At this point David seeks for a word from God and God gives him a word of encouragement to march ahead.

1 Samuel 30:8

⁸ and David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue this raiding party? Will I overtake them?"

"Pursue them," he answered. "You will certainly overtake them and succeed in the rescue."

In the process of strengthening ourselves in God, it is very important to listen to God. And the word of promise needn't always come as a prophetic word, it may come as a voice to you or it may come from the word of God – God can use His creativity to communicate with you. In this case here, David seeks or inquires of God and God gave him a word. The word was so powerful he was able to go back to the soldiers and talk to them, turn their hearts back, and they went back to the enemy and they got back everything that the enemy had stolen from them.

1 Samuel 30:18,19,20

¹⁸ David recovered everything the Amalekites had taken, including his two wives. ¹⁹ Nothing was missing: young or old, boy or girl, plunder or anything else they had taken. David brought everything back. ²⁰ He took all the flocks and herds, and his men drove them ahead of the other livestock, saying, "This is David's plunder."

When you add God to your mix, you create strength, strength in a situation that you can go back to the enemy. Today, you may be feeling lost in your Spiritual life or maybe you need a miracle in your family or may be your careers or whatever – we might have things to say like, "In the past I had this gift of God, but now I don't have it, I lost" Always remember that we serve a God of restoration! He has awesome plans for us... But it's important from our part to strengthen in God and seek His will for our life!

And when God restores, He restores in abundance! David and his men not only recovered what they lost but they received more: - they also got the

WUHAN PASTOR INTERROGATED AFTER ZOOM EVANGELISM EVENT: 'I WILL ONLY LIVE FOR CHRIST'

A local pastor in the Chinese city of Wuhan, the origin of the novel coronavirus, was taken away by police for interrogation while he was leading an online meeting of Christians on evangelism and church planting, according to the Chinese Christian Fellowship of Righteousness.

The Zoom meeting, "Proclaim Jesus Gospel Gathering," was underway when the police in Hubei province's Wuhan city came over, looked for evangelism materials or publications, and took away the pastor, identified only as Luo, from Nanjing Road Church, the U.S.-based Christian persecution watchdog International Christian Concern learned from the Chinese Christian Fellowship of Righteousness, which speaks out in public as Christians.

Pastor Luo was taken to a police station and interrogated for more than four hours. Not afraid, Luo told the police that Christians served the city during Wuhan's most difficult moments, leaving policemen speechless. "I rebuke them, calling them out that they are not minding business that they should be minding," Luo was quoted as saying. "Christians disregarded their own lives to do good things, yet the police treat them as the bad guys, this is unreasonable." I also

ISRAELI MINISTER THREATENS TO SHUT DOWN GOD TV CHANNEL PREACHING 'GOSPEL OF JESUS'

A new evangelical Christian television channel in Israel has been threatened with being shut down if it engages in any type of missionary activity, according to Israeli media reports. The Jewish Telegraphic Agency reports that the international television network GOD TV's new Hebrew-language channel Shelanu began airing last week on Israel's HOT cable network after receiving a seven-year license from the Israeli Communications Ministry.

GOD TV CEO Ward Simpson announced the launch and declared that the network has been "given government permission to broadcast the Gospel of Jesus Christ" in Israel, something he said has never been done before.

Proselytizing to people younger than 18 without their parents' consent is against the law in Israel, according to the Israeli newspaper Haaretz. And under the terms of the Shelanu license, the network is forbidden from engaging in missionary activities.

The Chairman of the Cable and Satellite Broadcasting Council, Asher Biton, told the newspaper that he was unaware when the license was granted to Shelanu that the new channel planned to engage in activities that are prohibited under the terms of the license.

Biton told the newspaper that he has ordered an investigation into the channel. Biton was quoted as saying that if it's determined that the license terms have been violated or there is any intention to violate them, Shelanu would be shut down.

"According to our regulations, it is fine to broadcast religious programming," Biton was quoted as saying. "But it is forbidden to broadcast content that has the potential to influence viewers in an undue fashion, and most certainly young and impressionable viewers."

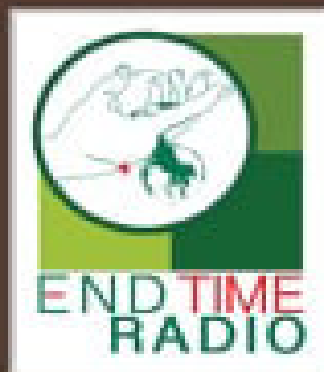

Biton said he doesn't want to rush to judgment because shutting down television networks isn't something the council does often. A HOT spokesperson told the newspaper that Shelanu is one of a number of religious channels that are broadcast in the country. "It received a permit from the council and is broadcasting according to law," the spokesperson declared, adding that "full information was provided to the council and the channel is operating in accordance with the permit it received."

According to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, Communications Minister David Amsalem said he "will not allow any missionary channel to operate in Israel, at no time and under no circumstances." Amsalem also demanded that if an investigation finds the channel to be engaging in missionary activities that "it be removed immediately."

According to a statement from GOD TV, Shelanu translates to the word "ours" in Hebrew. The channel aims to "present new and original programming from local congregations on the ground in Israel." "Additionally, international Messianic voices will share powerful real-life testimonies of Israelis who have come to know Yeshua as Messiah," the statement reads. "The channel, which won't carry fundraising, is being financed by Christians across the globe who want to empower Messianic congregations."

The GOD TV statement also states that Shelanu wants "every person in Israel to know, not a foreign Messiah, but a Jewish one!" "His name is Yeshua and He has not forgotten His people," the statement adds. Shelanu is operated in partnership with Tikkun International, an Israel-based network of Christian ministries. "We want Jewish viewers to grasp the fact that Jesus is theirs," a statement from Tikkun International on the new channel reads. "He is not a foreigner, intruder or imposter. He is their Jewish Messiah, born in Israel, raised as a Jew."

Other Christian channels such as Daystar and Middle East Television also broadcast in Israel but do not flaunt their missionary activities.
